Maude and Irving Minot had two sons, Vern (1899-1989) and Vivian (1901-1976). Subject: Doudna/Fish/Salisbury Research

I really appreciated your e-mail that put me in touch with your Aunt Dorothy. She was very helpful.

Since receiving information from Dorothy and Sally Younker, I have continued some census research here in Santa Rosa. My local library branch orders census microfilm for me from the State library system. This gives me plenty of time to research individual county records. They also have a great automatic microfilm reader that allows me to make copies. The copies are helpful for future reference; and in addition, I don't really trust handwritten notes.

We are taking a trip in October, and if weather cooperates, I hope to go to Columbia and Dane Counties in Wisconsin for a few days of research. I like to check in the courthouse for deed and vital records, and cemeteries can often provide information that isn't available elsewhere.

I was surprised to find Asahel Fish living with Isaac & Martha Doudna at the time of the 1905 State census. This record suggested that the Doudna's were in Mitchell County by 1876 since both Maude and Myrtle were born there.

I'm almost sure that the Abraham Fish on the 1880 census for Springfield, Dane County, was Asahel. His age was correct, and Charles' age was also correct. In addition, Asahel's wife was Susan. [Sometimes, census takers made mistakes.]

In addition, Asahel Fish, Sr., and his wife, Mary, were probably parents of Asahel Fish, Jr., who was the father of Martha (Fish) Doudna. It all fits especially since they lived next door to each other at the time of the 1850 census in Erie County, Pennsylvania.

If you would like to have more information as I find it, just let me know. I really seem to be dedicated to finding the descendants of James & Susan Salisbury.

My great grandfather, Daniel Salisbury, was a brother of Susan (Salisbury) Fish; Eliza (Salisbury) Hopkins; Henry Q. Salisbury; and Aaron C. Salisbury. I'm almost certain that James and Susan Salisbury had other children, but they were not shown on the probate records for Aaron C. Salisbury in 1907.

Dear Mrs. Kindschuh:

I received an e-mail from Donald Doudna this morning, and he gave me your name and telephone number. I found your address on the Internet.

I sent letters to the surnames and the towns listed for children of Eliza Hopkins and Susan Fish, sisters of my great grandfather, Daniel Salisbury. Their surnames and towns, counties, and states of residence were given on the probate records of their brother, Aaron C. Salisbury, of Lanark, Carroll County, Illinois. Aaron and his wife, Sarah (Wheeler) Salisbury, had no children.

Henry Q. Salisbury, a brother of Eliza, Susan, and Daniel, lived in Howard County and then in Mitchell County, Iowa. At the time of his brother's death in 1907, he was living in Riverside County, California. I have temporarily misplaced a record, but I believe he lived for a time near Osage.

I have been searching for answers about James and Susan (Curtis) Salisbury for several years. I felt that other descendants might have facts or scraps of information that would help in the search for answers.

I am always glad to share information that I have found, and I do feel that it is important to fill out the list of descendants as fully as possible.

My grandmother, Ella Jane Salisbury, born 1854 in Erie County, Pennsylvania moved to Spink County, South Dakota, after her father's death in 1881 in Westport, Dane County, Wisconsin. Ella Jane was a daughter of Daniel and Mary Emeline (Wheeler) Salisbury. [Sarah Wheeler, wife of Aaron C. Salisbury, and Mary Emeline (Wheeler), Daniel's wife, were sisters.] My grandmother, Ella Jane (Salisbury) Christenson died when she only 49 years old. My mother, Dorothy (Christenson) Zoodsma was only six years old when her mother died. I was born in South Dakota, and I lived on a farm near Redfield, South Dakota, until I was 11 years old.

I sincerely believe that your great grandmother, Martha Doudna, was a daughter of Susan (Salisbury) Fish. I found Susan and Asahel Fish on the 1850 census, but I haven't yet found them on the 1860 or 1870 census. I live about 80 miles from the nearest National Archives Branch where the census records are kept, so I don't get there often. In May we are going to the Baltimore area to visit a daughter, and I plan to visit the Archives in Washington, D.C.

I would appreciate hearing from you concerning our ancestors and their descendants. Anything that you remember would be helpful. I'm enclosing a copy of the letter that I sent to your nephew and other possible Hopkins Fish descendants. My self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed.

Sincerely
Betty Leach

This gives me plenty of time to research the individual county records. They also have a great microfilm reader that allows me to make copies. I don't always trust my handwritten notes.

I have enclosed copies of census records that apply to the Fish & Doudna lines. I have ordered the 1900 census for Mitchell County, so I hope they arrive at the library by the 28th. We are leaving on a trip to ND on October 1. We will visit a sister-in-law in Forman, ND, a cousin in Minneapolis, and a daughter in Kansas City. If time permits, I hope to stop in Osage on our way south to Kansas City. I would like to check for information at the courthouse and visit the cemetery.

If the weather cooperates, we intend to go to Columbia & Dane Counties in Wisconsin for research at the courthouses. We also plan to visit the cemeteries in Dekorra.

I was surprised to find Asahel Fish living with Isaac & Martha Doudna on the 1905 State census. This record suggested that the Doudna's were in Mitchell County by 1876 since both Maude and Myrtle were born there.

I wasn't able to find a telephone number for Lavern VanSyoc, so I sent her some materials some time ago. As yet, I haven't heard from her.

If you have additional information about the Fish and/or Doudna lines, I would appreciate receiving copies. I seem to be dedicated to finding descendants of James and Susan (Curtis) Salisbury. They were parents of Susan (Salisbury) Fish, wife of Asahel Fish.

Thanks again for your help.

never seen any, on either side of the ocean, that equaled them. They used the broad, smooth river as a canvas, and painted on it every imaginable dream of color, from the settled daintinesses and delicacies of the opal, all the way up, through cumulative intensities, to blinding purple and crimson conflagrations, which were enchanting to the eye, but sharply tried it at the same time. All the upper Mississippi region has these extraordinary sunsets as a familiar spectacle. It is the true Sunset Land; I am sure no other country can show so good a right to the name."

But the humorist must, of course, have the last word: "The sunrises are also said to be exceedingly fine. I do not know."

Le Claire is perhaps the most attractive of the many little old river towns which in by-corners of the upper valley sleep through the changing years, themselves little changed. The environment which it affords is not the least of the charms of The Green Tree.

Though not over a quarter of a mile wide the town straggles along more than two miles of curving river front. History offers the explanation for this situation. Originally there were two neighboring villages, Le Claire, founded in 1837 at the head of the rapids, and Parkhurst, or "Parkhurst Town" as it was commonly called, founded in 1834 about a mile and a half farther upstream. A stretch of dense forest known as "the Gulf" separated the two villages. Then the founding of a lumber mill in 1851 at the mouth of a creek flowing through the Gulf caused a third town, which fell heir to the name of Middletown, to spring up midway between the other two. The three settlements expanded and by the middle '50's jostled elbows uncomfortably. Clearly a case of the survival of the fittest was involved, and Le Claire proved to be most fit by virtue of being the first town above the rapids. The inevitable happened and in 1855 Le Claire engulfed its upstream neighbors. Hence the present elongation of the village.

Thus augmented Le Claire became a bustling town which numbered 1,500 to 1,800 souls—three times the population which it can now muster. It was then one of the most important towns on the upper Mississippi. Mills and factories were in busy operation, not to mention the half-dozen saloons that are reported to have been well patronized. But there came the financial crash of '57 which visited Le Claire as impartially as it did the hundreds of sister villages throughout the country. The mills and the factories closed down, though the saloons did not, and for a time the only individuals who flourished were the small boys who were hired to ring the auction bells which sounded through the unhappy town.

Le Claire never fully recovered its early vitality. It is true that the river business flourished for many years yet, but after 1885 even that waned. The stone quarries in the hills and clam fisheries in the river seem to have kept the spark of life aglow but never to have fanned it into flame.

A village of frame houses becomes shabby and unsightly with age, but one of stone and brick simply develops personality. The Le Claire business houses, many built of weathered Niagara limestone from the near-by quarries (now abandoned and ivy-grown) look old and are so. There is an

Family Group Record- 891

Husband George Clark FISH-1448

Wife Sophia Victoria STEWART-2694

Notes and sources of information

1875 State Census, Wisconsin, Dane Co., Westport, p. 1, line 17. George C. Fish, 3 males, 4 females. Daniel Salisbury, George Fish's uncle & Betty Leach's great grandfather, was on p. 1, line 11; Miles Salisbury, George's cousin & Daniel's son, was on line 10.

1880 U.S. Census, Wisconsin, Dane Co., Westport, S.D. 2, E.D. unclear, p. 111, lines 15-21, National Archives Microfilm No. T-9, roll 1422. Details of the entries follow:

127/127, Fish, George, male, 36, farmer, b. Penn., father, b. New York; mother, b. Penn.; Sophia, female, 35, wife, b. Penn., parents b. Penn.; Bell, female, 10, daughter, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn.; May, female, 7, daughter, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn.; Julius, male, 5, son, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn., Clara, female, 2, daughter, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn., Dean, George, male, 22, hired man. (This part of the census was taken on the 11th day of June 1880.)

1990 U.S. Census, Iowa, Mitchell Co., Osage City, S.D. 77, E.D. 118, Sheet Nos. 29B, line 100 & 30A, lines 1-3, National Archives Microfilm No. T 623, roll 448.
Details of the entries for this family follow:

647/665, George Fish, Head, male, b. Aug 1832 [sic], 67 [sic], married, 33 years, b. Penn., father b. Canada, mother b. Penn.; Sophia, wife, female, b. Jan 1844, married 33 years, had 6 children, 6 living, b. Penn., father b. New York, mother b. Penn.; Jessie M., daughter, b. Dec. 1872, 27, single, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn.; E. Wanita, daughter, b. June 1881, 18, single, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn.; A. Jay, son, b. May 1883, 16, single, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn.

SOME SPECULATION: Sophia had six children, & all were living in 1900 as shown on the census entry. I suspect that May, age 7, in 1880, was the same person as Jessie M., age 27, on the 1900 census. Could Elsie Waunita, age l8, on the 1900 census have been recorded as Clara on the 1880 census? The ages fit. It's possible that Edith, age 7 mo, in 1870 & Bell, age 10, in 1880 were the same person. Where does Susan King, an older sister of Achel Jay Fish, fit? She provided an affidavit when he applied for a delayed birth certificate in Dane Co. Wisc. Some families call some of their children by names other than their birth names; therefore, it is sometimes difficult to sort it out. (Betty Leach, compiler)

I didn't find Asahel Fish, Jr., & Susan & family on this census, but I probably just missed them. I found Susan's brother, Daniel (my ancestor) & his family living in Dwelling No. 1384, Family No. 1145. G. C. Hopkins & Eliza, Susan's sister, were living in Dwelling No. 1466, Family No. 1219.

I have notes on four other Fish families who were living in Dekorna in 1860. They were as follows:

Samuel Fish age 36, born Canada, & family lived in Dwelling No. 1478, Family No. 1234.

Royal Fish, age 64, born Canada, & family lived in Dwelling No. 1484, Family No. 1239.

Jesse Fish, age 33, born Canada, & family lived in Dwelling No. 1383, Family No. 1144.

H. M. Fish, age 28, born Canada, & family (1 male child) lived in Dwelling No. 1436, Family No. 1195.

[It is likely or possible that these Fish families are somehow related.] BJL

Modified Register for Asahel FISH Sr.-2809

First Generation

1. Asahel FISH Sr.-2809 was born about 1791 in VT.

   1850 U.S. Census, Pennsylvania, Erie Co., Fairview Twp., p. 171, written No. 359, lines 7-14, National Archives Microfilm No. M432, roll 777/778.

   Relationships to the Head of Household were not included in the census until 1880, but circumstantial evidence indicates that Sarah, Elizabeth, Marshall, Emily, & Mary were probably sons & daughters of Asahel & Mary Fish. On this census, Asahel & Mary were listed as dwelling No. 127 & family No. 130. Asahel, Jr., & Susan & their family lived in dwelling No. 128, family No. 131. Circumstantial evidence leads this compiler to believe that Asahel, Jr., was the son of Asahel & Mary. (Betty Leach, compiler)

   DETAILS FROM THE 1850 CENSUS FOR ASAHEL FISH: 127/130 Asahel Fish, 59, male, Christian clergy, $1,602 value of real estate, b. Vt.; Mary, 52, female, b. Vt.; Sarah, 22, female, b. Canada; Elizabeth, 19, female, b. Canada; Marshall, 17, male, b. Canada; Emily, 13, female, b. Penn.; Mary, 10, female, b. Penn.; Oliver B. Allen, 9, male, b. Penn.

   DETAILS FROM THE 1850 CENSUS FOR ASAHEL FISH, JR.: 128/131 Asahel Fish, Jr., 33, male, farmer, $1,000 value of real estate, b. Canada; Susan, 34, female, b. New York; Emma, 8, Female, b. Penn.; George, 6, male, b. Penn.; Caroline A., 2, female, b. Penn.. (I suspect that Caroline A., age 2, was the same person as Anna C. Sweet, age 62, at the time of the 1910 Census in Oskaloosa, KS.)

   1855 State Census, Wisconsin, Columbia Co., Dekorra, p. 2. The census showed Asahel Fish with 2 males & 2 females in the household.

   The 1855 census is important because it shows that Asahel Fish, Sr. & his family left Pennsylvania for Wisconsin after November 21st 1850 when the census was taken in Fairview Twp. & before the Wisconsin State census was done in 1855.

   1860 U.S. Census, Wisconsin, Columbia Co., Dekorra, p. 166, Lines 5-10, National Archives Microfilm No. M-653, roll 1401.

   DETAILS FROM THE 1860 CENSUS: Dwelling No. 1459, Family No. 1218, Asa Fish, 69, male, Christian Clergyman, real estate value $2,000, personal property value, $1,500, b. Vt.; Mary Fish, 61, female, b. Vt.; Oliver Allen, 19, male, b. Penn.; Francis Moulton, 3, male, b. Wisc.; Alice, 2, female, b. Wisc; Emma, 1, female, b. Wisc.

   1875 State Census, Wisconsin, Columbia Co., Dekorra, p. 5, line 29. Enumeration showed Head of Family, Asahael Fish, 1 male & 1 female.

   1880 U.S. Census, Wisconsin, Columbia Co., Dekorra, lines 6-~~7~~8, National Archives Microfilm No. T-9, roll 1420.

   DETAILS FROM THE 1880 CENSUS: Dwelling No. 32, Family No. 32, Fish, Ashael, male, 89, b. Vt., father b. Ct., mother b. Vt.; Mary, female, 87, b. Vt., father b. Mass., mother b. Mass.; Davis, Eliza, boarder, female, 60, keeping house.

Asahel married Mary-2810. Mary was born about 1799 in VT.

They had the following children:

+ 2 M i. Asahel FISH Jr.-1435 was born 29 Jul 1816 and died after 1895.

Second Generation

2. Asahel FISH Jr.-1435 (Asahel) was born 29 Jul 1816 in Canada. He died after 1895.

1855 State Census, Wisconsin, Columbia Co., Dekorra. Asahel Fish, Jr., was listed with 2 males & 3 females in the household.

1875 State Census, Wisconsin, Dane Co., Town of Springfield, line 1. A. Fish was listed as head of family with 2 males & 2 females.

1880 U.S. Census, Wisconsin, Dane Co., Town of Springfield, S.D. 2, E.D. 89, Sheet 13, p. 339, National Archives Microfilm No. T9, roll 1422.

sic b. Vt. sic b. NY Should be Canada

Details from the 1880 census were as follows: Dwelling No. 86, Family No. 90, Fish, Abraham [sic] (His name should be Asahel not Abraham.), male, 63, farmer, b. New York [sic], father b. Canada, mother b. Penn.; Susana, female, 61, keeping house, b. Penn., father b. Vt., mother b. New York; Charles, male, 22, b. Wisc., father b. New York, mother b. Penn.. (Inconsistencies occurred in this census, but some census takers did make errors. The accuracy of the information also depended on the member of the household who did the reporting. In my opinion, this family was the Asahel Fish, Jr. family.) (Betty Leach, compiler)

1895 State Census, Iowa, Mitchell Co., Osage, p. 2, lines 3-7.

Asahel Fish was enumerated with the Isaac Doudna family. He died sometime after the 1895 census was taken. Details from the census follow: Doudna, Isaac, 43, male, married, b. Ohio, religious belief was Congregational; Doudna, Martha, 40, female, married, b. Wisc., Cong.; Doudna, Maud, 19, female, Single, b. Mitchell Co., Iowa, Cong.; Doudna, Myrtle, 17, female, single, b. Mitchell Co., Iowa, Cong.; Fish, Asahel, 78, male, widower, Canada, Christian. (Both Doudna daughters were born in Mitchell Co. The Doudnas were obviously in Mitchell Co., Iowa, by 1876.)

Asahel married Susan SALISBURY-1442, daughter of James SALISBURY Rev.-58 and Susan CURTIS-59, on 1839 in Erie Co., PA. Susan was born 20 Apr 1819 in NY. She died 11 May 1890 in Waunakee, Dane, WI.

Martha died at age 83 y 8m 8d. Cause of death was carcinoma of the breast.

DOUBLE ENTRY: My program will not allow me to make entries for Vern & Vivian (Minett) Doudna under two sets of parents. It is my hope that the following explanation will be sufficient. Vern & Vivian Minett were adopted by their grandparents, Isaac & Martha Doudna, after the death of their parents, Maude A. Doudna & Irving J. Minett. Their surnames were changed to Doudna. (Betty Leach, compiler) line 100 & 30A, lines 1-3, National Archives Microfilm No. T623, roll 448. Details of the entries for this family follow:

647/665, George Fish, Head, male, b. Aug 1832 [sic], 67 [sic], married, 33 years, b. Penn., father b. Canada, mother b. Penn.; Sophia, wife, female, b. June 1881, 18, single, b. WiscI, parents b. Penn.; A. Jay, son, b. May 1883, 16, single, b. Wisc., parents b. Penn..

SOME SPECULATION: Sophia had six children, & all were living in 1900 as shown on the census entry. I suspect that May, age 7, in 1880, was the same person as Jessie M., age 27, on the 1900 census. Could Elsie Waunita, age 18, on the 1900 census have been recorded as Clara on the 1880 census? The ages fit. It's possible that Edith, age 7 mo, in 1870 & Bell, age 10, in 1880 were the same person. Where does Susan King, an older sister of Achel Jay Fish, fit? She provided an affidavit when Achel applied for a delayed birth certificate in Dane Co. Wisc. Some families call some of their children by names other than their birth names; therefore, it is sometimes difficult to sort it out. (Betty Leach, compiler)

[redacted]

Dear Annabelle:

Thank you again for the help you [redacted] of information about the descendants of [redacted] (Curtis) Salisbury.

When we were in Maryland, we went to the National Archives for two days to work on census and military records. I found George Fish on the 1900 census, but I was concerned that I had made an error in copying George's birth date & age. Last week we went to the big LDS Library on the Temple grounds in Oakland. I was able to check the 1900 census again, but the information was the same. I concluded that the census taker must have made an error because the information doesn't agree with the information you provided or with the 1850 and 1870 census. I will check the 1910 census when I have an opportunity. The LDS library didn't have the 1910 census records.

I found that my local library can order microfilm from the State Library System, so I will see how it works. I have ordered the 1860, 1880, and 1900 census for Columbia Co., Wisconsin. I still haven't found Asahel & Susan Fish on the 1860 or 1870 census. They were either missed by the census or I have missed them. Asahel & Mary Fish who were probably the father and mother of Asahel, Jr. stayed in Dekorra, Columbia Co.

I also found Charles Fish, Martha Doudna, and Emma (Mrs. Boliver A.) Rogers. The Rogers were in Ipswich, Edmunds Co., South Dakota, in 1900. I was not able to find Annie Sweet who was in Oskaloosa, Jefferson Co., Kansas, in 1907. George, Charles, Martha, Emma, and Annie were all children of Ashahel Fish and Susan (Salisbury) Fish.

When I get more information, I will let you know. I really enjoy hearing from you.

Sincerely

Betty Leach

Dear Karen:

I really enjoyed our telephone visit on Saturday. Yesterday, I put the information you gave me on the group sheets that I had typed from information provided by Annabelle Fish.

Bible records really carry a lot of weight in genealogy research, so I appreciated the facts that I received from Mrs. Fish. She has been very very helpful.

I am enclosing a copy of the generic-type letter that I mailed in early April to surnames of the descendants of Eliza (Salisbury) Hopkins and Susan (Salisbury) Fish. The internet made this type of search possible. I just entered the surname, the city or town, and the state, and I received a list of, for example, the Fishes currently living in Osage.

I am also enclosing copies of census records. I have found these records indispensable in genealogy research.

Thanks again for your telephone hospitality.

Sincerely,

Betty Leach

Dear Annabelle,

Thank you for your letter and for the enclosed material. What a find bible records are. I do appreciate your interest and your help.

We just returned home Tuesday from a two-week visit to a daughter and her family in Maryland. It took a couple of days to recover from the heat and the humidity of the east coast.

Bible records are really a genealogist's dream. If dates and events are recorded in a bible at the time they occurred or shortly after the event, they are very valuable indeed.

I will call Karen Koethke either today or tomorrow. I would certainly like to get a xeroxed copy of the bible entries for the Charles J. Fish family.

We were able to go to the National Archives for two-days of research while we were near Washington, D.C. I found George Fish on the 1870 census in Westport, Dane Co., WI, and on the 1900 census in Osage City. I didn't have time to search the 1880 census. Unfortunately, the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, so we are left with a 20-year blank period for the census.

As soon as I can get the material you sent onto group sheets with information I get from Karen Koethke, I will send copies along to you. I found Asahel Fish, Sr., on the 1870 and 1880 census for Dekorrah, Columbia Co., WI. In my opinion, he almost has to be the grandfather of George and Charles Fish and Martha Doudna. I will make copies of that information, too.

I must close now, but thank you again for your help.

Sincerely

Dear Annabelle:

Thank you for your letter and the completed forms. I really appreciate your efforts because I know it takes time to get all the material together.

I typed them on new family group sheets, and I included one for each of your children. If you want to give me their information and your grandchildren's data, I will include that, also.

Do you know of any descendants of Charles J. Fish who would be willing to give me information about their families? Did Charles Fish die in Osage? The only thing I have on him is his location at the time of his uncle's death in 1907.

If I have made any mistakes, please just make the connections; and return it to me.

Thanks again for help. I like to fill in as many blanks as possible.

Sincerely,

PS My husband changed my type wheel to script, and I really like it better.

I'm sorry I messed up these sheets by getting the month and date mixed. I thought George & Sophia Fish had more than two children, but I couldn't find any information on it.

I made a mistake on my husband's birthdate in my first letter -- it should be November 27, 1929.

My husband was Robert George Fish, born 11-17-19 in Osage, Iowa to Jay Asahel Fish and Blanche E. Sinotte. He died 6-11-94.

I do not have very much information about the family, but the name Asahel is very unusal.

Jay's father was George C. Fish, born 8-27-1842 in Erie PA to Asahel Fish, born 7-29-1816 in Canada. He was married in Erie, PA in 1839.

I do not know of any other living family members that you could contact. I'm sorry I do not have any more information for you.

Good Luck in your search.

Dear Betty,

I planned to type the info for you on Charles Fish, but I'm spoiled using my computer. I couldn't figure out the used typewriter I bought to do forms, etc.

I always wondered why the FISH bible didn't have Bob's father in it. It is the Charles Fish family bible, so I found many dates for you. I don't know how he ended up with his uncle's bible. I called his great granddaughter and told her she could pick it up .

She agreed to see if she could get information from her mother, Luella Fish Newton. You can contact her at:

New Hollywood blogger at LAT

Kevin Roderick • April 16 2009 4:59 PM

Joe Flint will take the lead on Company Town, the L.A. Times' entry in the blog space where the NYT has The Carpetbagger. Flint has a long resume and does impressions too, based on the memo from entertainment editor Sallie Hofmeister, which follows after the jump.

> To: The Staff
> From: Sallie Hofmeister, Assistant Managing Editor/Arts and Entertainment
> I am pleased to announce that veteran entertainment reporter Joe Flint is joining Calendar as the motorman behind Company Town online, our breaking news blog covering the media business. Although the blog will continue to draw upon contributions from the entire entertainment staff, the anchor will be Joe, who brings to the job an acerbic wit, three gigabytes of Outlook contacts and nearly 20 years of experience covering the business, including seven at the Wall Street Journal.
> Joe started as a reporter for Broadcasting & Cable magazine in Washington. Moving to Los Angeles, he became a television reporter and editor for Daily Variety before jumping to Entertainment Weekly, where he wrote a weekly column, On the Air. In 1999, Joe became a staff writer for the Journal in New York, covering television as well as major media giants such as Viacom, News Corp., CBS and Disney.
> Joe took a break from journalism in 2006 to become director of industry programs for the Paley Center for Media in New York. There, he organized conferences, panels and speaker series on media topics. A third-generation newsman, Joe is the ink-stained profession's equivalent to blue blood: His father, Jerry Flint, is the dean of > automotive journalists at Forbes, and his grandfather, the late Royce Howes, won a Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing at the Detroit Free Press.
> Joe will report to John Lippman. He will be seated on the second floor right next to his new boss, who looks forward to Joe's spot-on impersonations of Sumner Redstone, Leslie Moonves, Peter Bart and Robert Walden playing Donald H. Segretti in "All the President's Men."

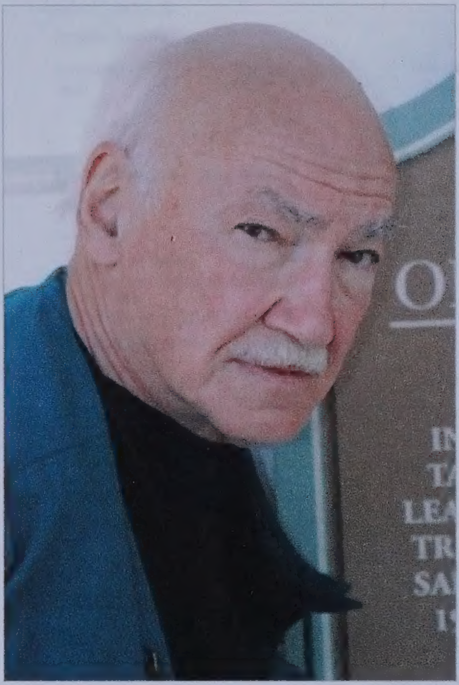
Jerry Flint, Curmudgeonly Automotive Journalist, Dead At 79



Jerry Flint, the official curmudgeon of the auto journalism world whose career dated to the Eisenhower administration, died Saturday. We fly our ascots at half-staff in his honor today.

A tireless chronicler of Detroit, Flint was born in the city on June 20, 1931 and went on to receive a B.A. in Journalism from Detroit's Wayne State University in 1953. While in school he worked as a copy boy for The Detroit News and with other publications. Shortly after graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he served for three years.

His first major journalism job was with The Wall Street Journal's Chicago bureau in 1956, where he served for a year before transferring to Detroit and began his more than half-century of coverage of the city's main industry. He'd go on to work for The New York Times as the Detroit bureau chief and numerous other positions with the paper. He started with Forbes Magazine in 1979 and would fill many positions with the publication until his death.

In 1996, Flint began writing a column for Forbes entitled "Backseat Driver" and another column for The Car Connection called "Driving Forces." As a pundit he covered the rise and fall of the automotive industry, giving many column inches over to poking and second-guessing decisions made by auto executives. We often disagreed with Flint and questioned his choice of necktie, but we always respected the spirited opinions he formed in decades covering the industry.

The loss of Flint is the loss of an incredible journalist and one of the industry's most legendary voices.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations in memory of Jerry Flint to the Overseas Press Club Foundation, 40 West 45th St., NY, NY 10036

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

FOWLER FAMILES – FAMILY NEWSLETTER

Those actively researching our surname have long felt the need for an official medium through which members of this distinguished family may assemble and preserve their colorful historical heritage. Each season – SPRING, SUMMER, AUTUMN, and WINTER – an informative periodical comes to subscribers all over the world.

The purpose of this publication is manifold:

1. to provide a means whereby compiled family records may be shared.
2. to offer those working on family research access to publication.
3. to assist those who are unable to make connections by exchanging any pertinent information.

The scope of this newsletter will cover all branches of this name, both past and present, stressing need for documentation, if available. All generally accepted variations of this surname will be examined. This will include the following:

FOWLER FAULER FAWLER FALLER

The editor encourages all subscribers to extend an invitation to other family members so they may be enlisted in our quest to learn more about our roots. This will expand our ability to help each other. Your comments and suggestions for improving our newsletter are welcomed as cooperation is essential in any venture. You may hold the key to another's connection. Without that clue or fact, others may face a dead-end. The editor also urges everyone to submit their FOLK FAMILY FOUR-GENERATION ANCESTOR CHART and their FOLK FAMILY GROUP SHEET. These cost you nothing, but they may give priceless data to a fellow researcher.

It is hoped that this newsletter will promote a feeling of kinship both among all who are fortunate to have been born with this great name and among those who loved one of us enough to take this name!

HAPPY HUNTING TO US ALL!

Planting a Family Tree

Before we know it, the year 2000 will be here. President John F. Kennedy said, "In ten years we will have a man on the moon" and we did it! Usually, by setting goals, we achieve them. Let us set a goal: By the turn of the century let us complete our Fowler Family Tree.

We don't want to leave anyone out so get those pens and pencils ready; start rolling that microfilm/microfiche and leafing through those endless pages of reference books because somewhere the information we need to connect our missing links lies hidden.

There is a nationwide campaign to plant trees so we may 'Re-Cover the Earth' by the year 2000. Let us do our part by "planting our Fowler Family Tree!"

We try to discover our roots, not only for our own satisfaction, but also for the enlightenment of our children and their children's children.

Some of our branches are magnificent; covered with a multitude of names, laden with the fruit of the future. Others are somewhat sparse; they need nurturing and cultivating before they can produce luxuriant growth. Several lie dormant; like Rip Van Winkle, awaiting a call to wake them from slumber. If they sleep for 20 years, they will miss our celebration. Let's shake these idle limbs into activity and include them in our quest.

IF YOU KNOW YOUR FOWLER FAMILY HISTORY – SHARE IT
IF YOU WONDER WHERE TO BEGIN – START WITH YOUR FAMILY
IF YOU WONDER HOW TO PROGRESS – INQUIRE

WE'LL BE GLAD TO HELP

We welcome your ideas for planting our Fowler Family Tree. We feel the need for consistent, easily-accessible communication; therefore, we publish the Fowler Family Newsletter. A newsletter is the best method of gathering data which requires constant updating; it is a reliable method of informing fellow researchers; it retains in printed form what is known and what is being sought by whom.

Just as each part of the tree is important, each member of our Fowler Family Tree is vital to the whole. We need you in this endeavor if our family history is to be complete.
